Black & Gerngross is a specialized multi-state civil law practice with targeted expertise in complex litigation and transactions. The firm is AV Rated by Martindale-Hubbell, the highest rating in legal ability and professional ethics that a law firm can achieve.

We draw upon our attorneys' broad experience and superior skills to provide focused, efficient legal representation tailored to our clients' objectives and goals. Our clients range from publicly held corporations, institutions and insurance companies, to mid-sized and closely held businesses and individuals. While our firm is based in the Philadelphia region, our practice is national and international in scope.

We deliver quality legal representation through precise analysis, focused objectives and aggressive responsiveness to clients' needs. Our common commitment is to excellence, hard work and efficiency.

We welcome the opportunity and privilege to serve your legal needs.
